Gender is the range of characteristics pertaining to, and differentiating between, masculinity and femininity. Depending on the context, these characteristics may include biological sex (i.e., the state of being male, female, or an intersex variation), sex-based social structures (i.e., gender roles), or gender identity. Traditionally, people who identify as men or women or use masculine or ...

In this course we will investigate what causes inequality between women and men. How does it arise, why does it take different forms, why does it vary in degree across societies, what are the components that add up to gender inequality, how do various institutions and practices contribute to it, and how does it change?

What Causes Gender Inequality? -- Robert Max Jackson

Eric's comments on the data: In my experience the "urgency" of this phenomenon has followed the release of the American Council on Education's "Gender Equity in Higher Education" reports originally released in 2000, updated in 2006, and 2010. In the latest the major takeaway was "stabilizing of the college gender gap."
