The Culture of Narcissism by Christopher Lasch (Quotations)

She looks at narcissism in the pursuit of fame and our obsession with "making it". She goes beyond the usual suspects of social media and celebrity culture to the deeper root of the issue: how a new narcissistic character-type is being fuelled by a cult of the self and the pursuit of wealth in a hypercompetitive consumer society.

Book Review "The Life of I: The New Culture of Narcissism"

I found this book very thought-provoking, in the boldness and bleakness of its basic thesis (that narcissism is really about fear [and is not simply about vanity]; and that America is a culture that suffers from [and promotes] fear [of nothingness, of "no exit"]).
